

PASTOR & ELDER TRAINING WORKSHOPS

Fall 2022

Presented by Inter-Presbytery Leadership Formation (IPLF)
Education and Enrichment for Elders and Pastors in the Presbyterian Church (USA)

Tech for Today's Church

More than merely worship broadcasting; How we can employ these tools for strengthening and furthering mission, fellowship, discipleship, and nurture.

Saturday, August 13, 2022, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. J Freyer

Preaching the Psalms

The Book of Psalms is really several different types of literature. What approaches should a preacher utilize for different types of Psalms?

Saturday, September 10, 2022, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Jerome Creach

Preaching Lab

Proclaiming God's word is a serious exercise, worthy of continued work for growth. Individually and in small groups, students will create and assess their approaches to a variety of texts and different ministry settings, with an eye toward improved preaching skills.

Saturday, October 8, 2022, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Doug Rehberg

Creative Celebrations of the Sacraments

The tactile spirituality of Table and Font may be increased and enhanced by breaking away from our local traditions, finding new means to celebrate the eternal truths of our two sacraments.

Saturday, November 12, 2022, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Laura Blank

Leading as a Small Church Moderator

When the Session meeting includes only a few folks each month, dynamics and decision-making are distinctive, special in ways that larger churches cannot appreciate and that elders from midsize-to-large congregations may not realize.

Saturday, December 10, 2022, 12:30-3:30 pm

Instructor: Rev. Dr. Brenda Barnes

All workshops will be hybrid offerings by ZOOM and at
