

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

May Gathering Highlights

- The Presbytery gathered with a focus upon the “Great End” of “maintenance of divine worship.” Coming together in worshipful work to offer praise and service, proclamation, and sacraments. Rev. Teshome preached the sermon and Rev. Sherwood presided at the table.
- As our gracious host, we were welcomed by the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church. We also heard from representatives of the congregation about their mission project in Gambella, Ethiopia as well as the efforts of Revloc in the nursing home.
- The remaining amendments to the Book of Order were brought before the Presbytery. In order for any amendment to revise the Book of Order, it must pass the General Assembly and a majority of presbyteries. See the current status of all presbytery votes pc-biz.org.
- The COM reported on new Covenant Pastor relationships between Rev. Larry Armstrong and the Derry Presbyterian Church and Rev. Becca Siddle and The United Presbyterian Church of New Kensington. Additionally, Rev. Ross Bash was moved to retirement status and was honored.
- As part of our role in preparing and equipping the next generation of pastoral leadership, James Vlosich spoke of his call to pastoral ministry and was moved from Inquirer to Candidate status. James is a member of Trinity United in Uniontown.
- Pine Springs reported on their 75th anniversary celebration. Also, a special Redstone joint worship service and picnic will take place on July 16; 10:00 at the Log Chapel.

Presbytery of Redstone

Communicate the Word...

Carry on the Work...

Change the World.....Together!

May Gathering Highlights

- The Presbytery gathered with a focus upon the “Great End” of “maintenance of divine worship.” Coming together in worshipful work to offer praise and service, proclamation, and sacraments. Rev. Teshome preached the sermon and Rev. Sherwood presided at the table.
- As our gracious host, we were welcomed by the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church. We also heard from representatives of the congregation about their mission project in Gambella, Ethiopia as well as the efforts of Revloc in the nursing home.
- The remaining amendments to the Book of Order were brought before the Presbytery. In order for any amendment to revise the Book of Order, it must pass the General Assembly and a majority of presbyteries. See the current status of all presbytery votes pc-biz.org.
- The COM reported on new Covenant Pastor relationships between Rev. Larry Armstrong and the Derry Presbyterian Church and Rev. Becca Siddle and The United Presbyterian Church of New Kensington. Additionally, Rev. Ross Bash was moved to retirement status and was honored.
- As part of our role in preparing and equipping the next generation of pastoral leadership, James Vlosich spoke of his call to pastoral ministry and was moved from Inquirer to Candidate status. James is a member of Trinity United in Uniontown.
- Pine Springs reported on their 75th anniversary celebration. Also, a special Redstone joint worship service and picnic will take place on July 16; 10:00 at the Log Chapel.